Yangon-Kawthaung-Yangon

Myanmar: Myanmar's Mergui Archipelago in the Andaman Sea (Burma) has over 800 tropical islands, covering an area of over 10,000 square kilometres. Until 1996, this authentic place was closed to the outside world for more than 50 years, countless uninhabited islands, virgin beaches, lakes and waterfalls. It is also one of the few remaining untouched areas on Earth because of their isolation. The islands and surrounding seas are alive with the fantastic diversity of wildlife, young and old, hard corals, soft and massive sponges. The vast includes giant groupers, all kinds of fish aggregation, various species of sharks, regular observations of a large number of stingrays. The macro life is present; sea horses, pipefish and much more rare ghost are the inhabitants of the archipelagos.

Mergui Fishing Points

Information for the fishing experiences in the Mergui Archipelago:

The Mergui Archipelago consists of over 800 stunningly beautiful islands, and it is still an unspoiled fishing place in south-east Asia.

- "32 kilometres offshore Victoria Point."

Giant Trevally, Sailfish, Yellowfin Tuna, Wahoo and King Mackerel are abundant in these waters, and the first night we anchor in the western area of the Mergui Archipelago, where bottom fishing is very productive.

- West part of the Mergui Archipelago is the offshore banks are a cluster of 20 seamounts rising from 400 meters of depth to just 10–30 meters below the surface.

Tuna, Dorado, Wahoo, Black Marlin and even Shark are abundant in these banks.

- Bottom fishing is possible at night time.

Shark, Groupers, big Giant Trevally, Snappers and even Dogtooth Tuna can be caught at night time.

Many kinds of Shark are possible:

- ❖ Massive Tiger Sharks
- ❖ Hammerhead Sharks
- ❖ Mako Sharks
- ❖ Bull Sharks
- ❖ Oceanic Silvertip Sharks

Please enjoy your day at the perfect place for diving, snorkelling, sea kayaking, fishing, birds watching, short trekking and jungle safari on our islands of Mergui Archipelago!

YOUR CONTRIBUTION TO BURMESE CHILDREN'S EDUCATION

AUTHENTIC MYANMAR is committed to promoting ethical tourism whenever and wherever possible.

Following Cyclone Nargis, which devastated large swathes of the Irrawaddy Delta in May 2008, AUTHENTIC MYANMAR helped establish "Solidarité-Enfance-Birmanie", an NGO which participates in the reconstruction of schools in the Irrawaddy Delta region. In particular, we support two primary schools in Shan Quen and (in Yangon Division) Tha Man Gyi villages. These schools have an enrolment of 125 pupils.

For each one of its customers, AUTHENTIC MYANMAR donates €5 to this project.

AUTHENTIC MYANMAR TEAM thanks all of its customers for indirectly supporting a program that brings the advantages of primary education to some of Myanmar's neediest children, assuring them a better, brighter future.

If you wish to make further, direct contributions to this educational project, then do please contact us again.
